

why should telemarketers be allowed to call individuals that have stated that they do not want there calls, by siging the do not call listing.

I certainly do not miss there calls.